A DYNAMIC 4-PART CLASS designed to assist current high school seniors through the college application process

September 29, October 13, and October 27
Bonus Session November 3
1:30 – 4:30 p.m. • UC Davis School of Education Room 261
Class Fee $175 • Instructor: Lynne de Bie

It is now CRUNCH TIME for seniors getting ready to complete their college admission process. The goal of this course is to provide you with the information and skills you need to make the process as painless as possible. The course will cover all aspects of the process and hopefully will have you ready to hit the “submit” button well before the deadline.

Course instructor Lynne de Bie recently retired from Dixon Unified School District with 34 years experience as a counselor and a teacher. She has been an instructor with UC Davis Extension College Admissions Advising Certificate Program, an Admissions Reader for UC Davis and UC Berkeley, and a Commissioner appointed to the California Student Aid Commission.

SESSION 1 • SEPTEMBER 29
Understanding Admission Factors/Exploring College Options
• Academic record: a close look at your transcript
• Admissions tests: SAT, ACT, AP score management
• Extracurricular activities: doing what “is” good, not just what “looks” good
• Letters of recommendation: teachers will be rating you...
• Personal Statements/Essays: focusing on appropriate topics
• Finding the right “fit” vs. prestige/trophy seeking

SESSION 2 • OCTOBER 13
Get Organized and Apply
• Choosing a major: alternatives for highly competitive/impacted programs
• CSU, UC, Common Application forms: get started!
• Writing tasks: UC Personal Statements; Common App prompts; Supplemental Essays

SESSION 3 • OCTOBER 27
Develop a Financial Plan
• Looking at college costs: exploring college financial aid/scholarship websites
• Applying for financial aid: Grants, loans, work/study; filling out a FAFSA
• Applying for scholarships: Merit Scholarships, local/regional awards; scholarship searches

SESSION 4 • NOVEMBER 3
A Personalized Final Review of Your Application
• Individual time blocks with the instructor will be scheduled for review of your personal statement and/or college essay.
