

The Transformative Justice in Education (TJE) Center in the UC Davis School of Education presents

Building Toward Abolitionist Futures

A Roundtable Discussion Featuring Dr. Erica Meiners, nuri nusrat, J.D., and Rachel Herzing

Erica R. Meiners, PhD

Bernard J. Brommel Research Professor,
Education and Women's and Gender Studies
Northeastern Illinois University

Dr. Meiners is the author of several books, including Right to Be Hostile: Schools, Prisons and the Making of Public Enemies, and specializes in issues related to gender and incarceration, the school-to-prison pipeline, and prison abolition.

nuri nusrat, J.D.

Restorative Justice Project Impact Justice

nusrat is dedicated to working with people whose lives are affected by the criminal legal system. She collaborates with communities across California to implement pre-charge restorative justice diversion programs.

Rachel Herzing

Center for Political Education

Herzing works to combat the prison industrial complex and its attendant ills. She is a co-founder of Critical Resistance, a national grassroots organization dedicated to abolishing prisons, Co-Director of the Center for Political Education, and the Co-Director of the StoryTelling & Organizing Project.

education.ucdavis.edu/event/tje-roundtable

MONDAY
April
17

5 p.m.

Muliti-Purpose Room
Student Community Center

No Fee to Attend

Registration is Required

