

Financial Information 2021-2022

Information on the cost to attend the UC Davis Teacher Credential program can be viewed at:
<http://financialaid.ucdavis.edu/graduate/education/cost.html>

Here are some options for funding your teaching credential program:

Scholarship/Grant

The School of Education offers a number of scholarships and grants to well-prepared applicants who apply for admission by the Scholarship Deadline of January 15th.

Applicants applying after the Scholarship Deadline will be considered for fellowship awards for the Masters portion of the program.

Veteran's Benefits

If you qualify for VA benefits, please contact the VA Center by email to vaoffice@ucdavis.edu or calling 530-752-2020. We want to make sure you receive any tuition fee waiver and housing allowance you are entitled to in a timely manner. Email credentialanalyst@ucdavis.edu at the School of Education, for general guidance.

Cal Grant

If you have received Cal Grant benefits and will begin the Credential Program within the last 15 months of your last quarter, you may qualify for an additional year of eligibility. You will need to work with the California Student Aid Commission to verify eligibility and submit the G-44 Form (Request for Cal Grant Teaching Credential Program Benefits) to request benefits. For assistance, contact financial aid or visit their website at: <https://www.csac.ca.gov/post/request-cal-grant-teaching-credential-program-benefits>

Loans

There are a variety of loan options to help you fund your education. Completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or the California Dream Act, allows the university to determine what types of financial aid you qualify for. When completing your application, please indicate that you are applying to a Grad/Professional program – not teacher credential.

For our International and DACA applicants, please be sure to check with the Financial Aid office to see how your loan options may differ.
