Become More Involved?

Get Involved

- Mentor: Connect with School of Education graduate students and/or our charter school students at West Sacramento Early College Prep (grades 6-12) for career and education planning and support.
- Hire: Submit job postings for teaching and other education-related positions in your workplace.
- Speak: Share your experience and expertise in a classroom and through lectures, panels, and speaking events.
- Recruit: Refer and encourage qualified graduate students for our Teaching Credential, Master’s, EdD, and PhD programs.
- Network: Join us at alumni events, such as Fall Welcome and the Honoring Educators Awards Ceremony, as well as student events, such as orientations, career fairs, research presentations, and graduation.
- Give: Support the School’s Annual Fund, which provides student scholarships for future teachers, researchers, and educators as well as supports key initiatives that engage alumni and the broader community in our mission.

Serve: Build future programs for the SOEAA by participating on Alumni Council committees or as a Council member.

Nominate: Submit nominations through our annual Honoring Educators Award Ceremony for outstanding students, alumni, faculty or education advocates who work to effect positive change in schools, colleges, and universities in our region and beyond.

Share: Send us a note about your recent professional and personal accomplishments so that we can share your story with others.

Learn: Attend lectures, conferences, and other professional development opportunities to continue your own education.

Benefit: Potential discounts to School of Education and alumni chapter events and merchandise.

Joint: Become a member of the Cal Aggie Alumni Association. Use membership offer code (SOE13) and a portion of your membership will support the School of Education. Recent alumni (within one year of graduation) will receive a discount. Go to http://www.alumni.ucdavis.edu for more information.
